

Commercial Use License

All items purchased/freebies are Copyright to Marta Waniek (Marta van Eck)

Marta van Eck reserves the right to modify, update, and change our Terms of Use and Licensing Terms at any time, with or without notice. The term “mass produced” is defined as producing more than 500 of a physical/durable product. The term “mass distributed” is defined as distributing more than 5,000 copies of any printed or digital material, or 10,000 hits/viewings of any material posted online. The term “end consumer” is defined as the final purchaser or user of the product created using our designs. Typically, the person purchasing the commercial product from Marta van Eck is not the end consumer.

A Commercial Use license must be obtained when:

The designs will be modified for the purpose of selling or distributing the designs themselves as the end product, like: digital scrapbooking kits, digital embroidery patterns.

The product made from the designs will be sold or distributed in a digital format, allowing modification by the end consumer. Examples: blog or website designs, facebook header where the consumer adds their own pictures, digital presentations or slide-show templates.

The designs will be used by a non-profit organization to create a product that will be published and distributed at a cost to the end consumer, as long as the product will not be mass distributed.

The designs will be used to make marketing graphics, advertising, or informational products that will be used by a for-profit business, so long as the products will not be mass distributed.

The Commercial Use License products may not be:

- Used to create any physical product that is mass produced or any printed or digital material that is mass distributed.
- Sold (or given away for free) without modifying or altering the designs first. Our designs should be considered a design tool not a final design product. Your final product must be a derivative of the Marta van Eck product you purchased. You MAY NOT sell these original products (either in whole or part) and market them as your own creation. Commercial use shapes, doodles, templates, overlays , flowers, bows, styles etc.
- Sold (or given away for free) in their entirety - any product (such as a digital scrapbooking kit or clip art package) that is using our designs may not contain more than 40% designs from Marta van Eck. You MAY create freebies using this product ie. for digital scrapkits or mini kits but not element packs. You MAY NOT redistribute this product, in part or whole, in any way. This includes cd/dvd, graphic collections, email, group or website links.
- Used to make a Commercial Use digital scrapbooking kit (known as CU4CU). You MAY use our designs to make a kit that will be sold as S4H/S4O only.
- Made into any product or digital material that is then resold by the end consumer.

We do not require you to provide us credit for the commercial license products you use. It is always appreciated, but not necessary.

Requests for licensing of our products for uses that are outside of these terms are handled on a case-by-case basis. Please contact us at martavandereck@googlemail.com for more information.
